1. Data flow

This is how we'll pass data between CommBank and your Xero account when you opt in to connecting it to Stream Working Capital. To use Stream Working Capital, you will need a Stream Working Capital Transaction Account to get your invoices paid into.

2. Getting started

From your NetBank inbox, you will receive access to the registration page, to connect your Xero accounting package for an indicative offer.

The screenshot shows an email interface. On the right, there is a yellow button labeled "Need help?" and a grey button labeled "Help & Support". The email content is as follows:

Subject: Stream Working Capital - start application
Category: Applications
Date received: 26/04/2022 01:59 PM
Message: Hi

Thanks for your interest in Stream Working Capital.
If you continue with the application, your reference number will be CCL.

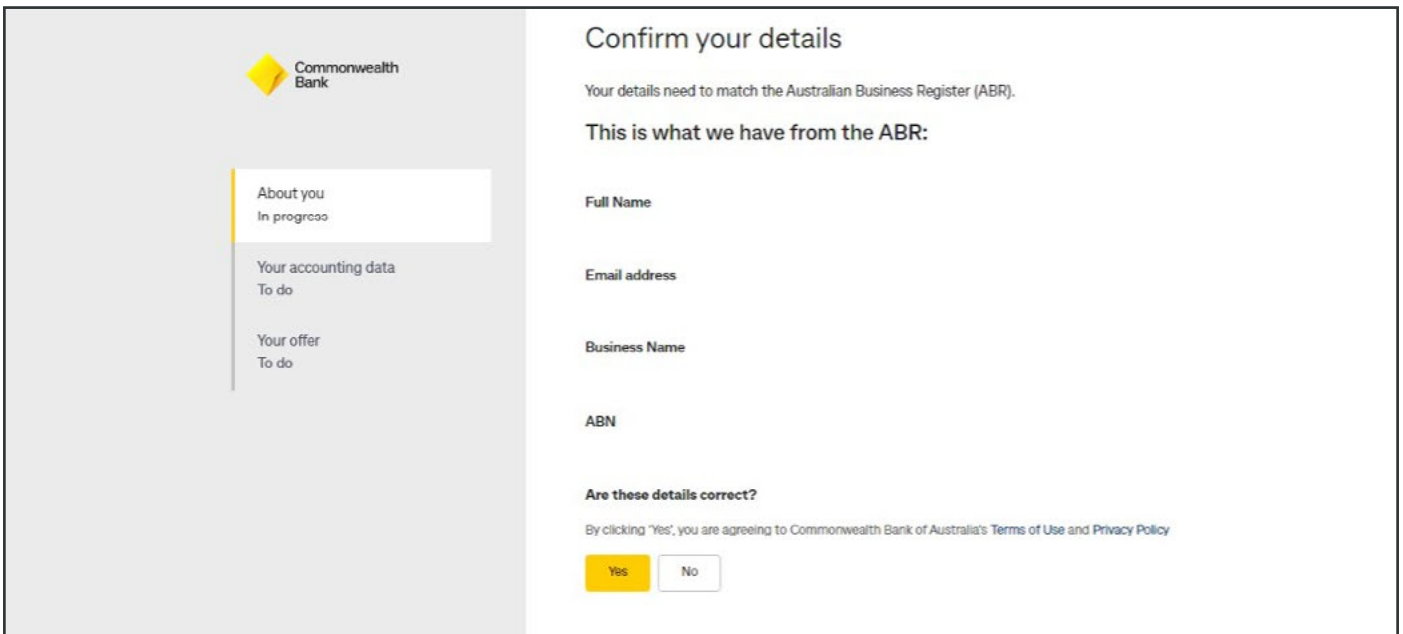

Apply in four simple steps:

- 1 Complete your application (5 mins)
Enter a few details about your business and connect your accounting software.
We'll provide an estimated credit limit (subject to eligibility).
- 2 We'll review your application
If we need more information from you, we'll let you know.
- 3 Finalise your application
If you're eligible, you'll need to sign the required legal documents and any other approval requirements.
- 4 We'll be in touch
When we have everything we need, we'll contact you to discuss your approved balance and help you get started with Stream Working Capital.

Provide access to invoices issued

Access to the accounting software you use to invoice your customers will help us understand the value of your outstanding invoices.

We'll then be able to provide you with an estimated credit limit (subject to eligibility).

Which accounting software do you use?

None of the above

Things you should know

Next, we'll provide you with an estimated offer (subject to eligibility) based on the invoices you've provided

If you accept the offer and submit the application

- We'll access this data while you have a Stream Working Capital loan, unless you revoke access through your Xero account. This data won't be used for any other purpose
- We'll also send data back to Xero to ensure your accounting records remain up-to-date.
- We'll never modify any information in your accounting software

If you don't want to continue

- We'll call you to understand more
- We'll disconnect access from your accounting software

Want to stop sharing data?

You can choose to stop sharing your accounting data anytime, by disconnecting CommBank directly through your accounting software settings.

I agree to share my data as outlined above, for the purpose of applying for and ongoing management of a Working Stream Capital loan. I also agree that CommBank will send information back to my

You will be prompted to enter your Xero login information.

The image shows a screenshot of the Xero login page. At the top center is the Xero logo, a blue circle with the word "xero" in white. Below the logo is the heading "Log in to Xero". Underneath the heading are two input fields: the first is for the email address and the second is for the password, with the password field masked with dots. To the right of each input field is a small icon of three dots. Below the input fields is a blue button labeled "Log in". Underneath the button are two links: "Forgot password?" and "Can't log in?". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with five links: "Security noticeboard", "Terms of use", "Privacy", "Help Center", and "Sign up".

Select your Xero accounting file. Note, if you only have one, this will be pre-filled for you.
